DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is responsive to amendment filed July 20, 2009. Claims 1-37,53 and 54 remain pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 7/20/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
3. Applicant argues that the Recognizer of Kawaski directs communication to the Profiler and not to the user, as allegedly required by the claim.

In reply, the claims are broad and thus given their broadest reasonable interpretation. Nowhere in the claims is there a recitation of a phrase similar "directing communication to", as argued by Applicant. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). The claims broadly recite "communicate with", which can be interpreted to simply mean "connected with", "interact with" or "part of". The claims fail to explicitly designate which elements of the claim are transmitting or receiving and therefore this will not be read into the claims. Kawasaki anticipates the claims because the elements of Kawasaki that correspond to the claims are all part of the same system and all directly, indirectly, actively or passively interact with each other in some way (i.e. communicate with).

4. Applicant argues that the Profiler of Kawaski does not direct communication to the Recognizer, as allegedly required by the claim.

In reply, the claims are broad and thus given their broadest reasonable interpretation. Nowhere in the claims is there a recitation of a phrase similar “directing communication to”, as argued by Applicant. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1-6,8-10,12-14,33,35-37,53 and 54 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kawasaki (US Publication No 2001/0011264).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 11,15-32 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Kawasaki et al (US Patent No 6,401,085).

9. Claim 7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kawasaki et al (US Patent No 6,401,085) in view of Moshfeghi et al (US Patent No 6,076,166).

10. See Office Action dated 12/10/2008 for a detailed listing of the above rejections.

Conclusion

11. Applicant may not introduce any new matter to the claims or to the specification. For any subsequent response that contains new/amended claims, Applicant is required to cite its corresponding support in the specification. (See MPEP chapter 2163.03 section (I.) and chapter 2163.04 section (I.) and chapter 2163.06)

12. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
